International ESOL (IESOL) and International Spoken ESOL (ISESOL)

Recognition List

International ESOL (IESOL) and International Spoken ESOL (ISESOL)

Organisations listed in this document are examples of universities, governments, professional associations and employers around the world which have formally recognised City & Guilds International ESOL (IESOL) and International Spoken ESOL (ISESOL) qualifications.

Notes:

'IESOL + ISESOL' indicates that candidates must attain the required standard in both International ESOL and International Spoken ESOL examinations. The Spoken examination (ISESOL) is not acceptable at any level in itself.

A 'first class pass' indicates that a 'pass' at the same level is not acceptable.

A "'pass' and a 'first class pass'" indicates that a 'pass' or 'first class pass' is acceptable at the level(s) shown as sufficient evidence of English language competency for admission.

For details on individual recognitions, please see description under each institution.

Higher Education

Institutions listed in this section are examples of universities and colleges which have recognised select levels of City & Guilds International ESOL (IESOL) and International Spoken ESOL examinations (ISESOL) as meeting the English language requirements for admission to their degree or degree-linked programmes, or English language classes and/or examinations.

Recognition means that levels of the IESOL and ISESOL examinations indicated in this list may be considered as meeting the English language entry requirements to specific programmes and/or examinations.

Recognition and successful completion of the recognised levels do not guarantee admission.

The University of Buckingham
www.buckingham.ac.uk

The University of Buckingham is the only independent university in the UK (and possibly the smallest, with only 750 students). This means that the University has the best ratio of students to staff in the UK. Students from over 80 different nationalities will graduate to find jobs all over the world.

Buckingham's 'fast track' two-year Bachelors degrees allow students to make significant savings on time and costs.

The campus offers a secure and quiet study environment with guaranteed accommodation within easy walking distance of the teaching buildings.

The University has a much higher than average level of spending on IT and library resources.

The University offers sport and fitness programmes at a competitive or recreational level, and is member of the British Universities Sports Association (BUSA).

The University of Buckingham is small and beautiful. You will never be more than a 10-minute walk away from your accommodation, lectures, support services and social activities – a rare feature for a British University.

Buckingham is blessed with some great surrounding countryside and towns, including Milton Keynes, Cambridge, Oxford and London – all less than an hour away.

De Montfort University
Expert (first class pass) and Mastery IESOL

A 'first class pass' at Mastery level in IESOL is accepted for admission to all programmes. A 'pass' at Mastery level in IESOL would normally be acceptable for admission to most undergraduate and some postgraduate programmes, depending on the linguistic demands of the course.

Middlesex University
www.mdx.ac.uk

Middlesex is now regarded as an excellent international provider of higher education with outstanding academic credential and highly employable graduates.

The university provides an outstanding education, and students are able to experience a varied and rich experience. We have over 22,000 students studying with us from over 170 different countries. Choosing Middlesex provides you with first-class facilities, a wide choice of subjects and courses, outstanding teaching and personal student support.

The university has four schools in north London: the School of Arts and Education; the Business School and School of Computing Science; and the School of Health and Social Sciences.

Middlesex is rapidly developing as a research institute. This research adds value to the student experience as it enriches the academic environment they work in and boosts the prestige of the University.

Quality

- The 2003 institutional audit by the Quality Assurance Agency gave Middlesex the highest rating possible
- We are a centre of excellence for teacher education
- We have been awarded £6.3m for the creation of two national Centres for Excellence in Teaching and Learning
- In 2006 two of our academics became National Teaching Fellows of the Higher Education Academy (only 50 such awards were made nationally)
- Middlesex is one of very few universities to have been awarded three Queen's Anniversary Prizes
- We received a Queen's Award for Enterprise in 2003
- The Higher Education Funding Council for England has recognised two areas of Middlesex as Centres for Excellence for Teaching and Learning – Work Based Learning and Mental Health and Social Work.

Portsmouth is a popular choice for students from around the world and has provided learning opportunities for students from many different nations for decades. We currently have more than 3500 International and EU students from over 100 countries.

The University of Portsmouth continues to be a centre of excellence and innovation in education, student experience and employability, aspiration-raising, research, knowledge transfer and community leadership.

Sheffield Hallam University

Sheffield Hallam University Expert and Mastery IESOL + ISESOL

Applicants with a 'pass' or 'first class pass' at Expert or Mastery level in both IESOL and ISESOL should be considered as having reached a standard English competence that satisfies the responsibility laid on the admissions tutors to assess the English language competence of applicants. Each application will be considered for the particular programme requested by the applicant, and will need to satisfy the subject entry criteria as well.

Sheffield Hallam University
www.shu.ac.uk

Sheffield Hallam is one of Britain's most progressive and innovative universities with more than 28,000 students, over 3,000 staff and a turnover over £150 million.

85 per cent of the students are expected to complete their courses – better than the average for all UK universities and better than all but one of the other modern universities.

Sheffield Hallam is also the largest provider of sandwich courses in the UK, giving many of the students the opportunity to benefit from a year's work placement – working on real projects in a real workplace. Mature students make up more than half of the student population. More than half of students are mature students. The University is northern England's second-largest part-time postgraduate education provider.

Graduates' have a high employability rate, and their most frequent first career destinations are manufacturing, business, education, IT, property, healthcare, social work, wholesale and retail trades, finance and hospitality – but the list is almost endless.

Home to two universities with more than 40,000 students, plus Europe's largest further education college, Sheffield is very much a learning city. It's one of the country's most in-demand student destinations, and a higher proportion of students stay on to live and work here than in any other city outside London. The beautiful Peak District National Park is less than thirty minutes drive from the city centre.

University of Sussex Expert and Mastery IESOL

A 'pass' or 'first class pass' at Expert or Mastery level in IESOL, together with a 'pass' or 'first class pass' in ISESOL of the same (or higher) level, is accepted for admission to all under- and postgraduate programmes.

Scottish Agricultural College
www.sac.ac.uk

SAC – the Scottish Agricultural College – is a specialist higher education institution for courses that relate to the existing and emerging land-based industries and pursuits. The College offers the widest choice of courses, at all levels, in subjects relevant and supportive to the land-based sector. SAC offers degrees validated by three of Scotland's ancient universities (Aberdeen, Glasgow and Edinburgh), as well as Higher National, foundation and postgraduate studies. SAC offers courses in an exciting and diverse range of subjects including Adventure Tourism and Outdoor Pursuits, Sport and Leisure Management, Rural Recreation and Tourism Management, Agriculture, Countryside and Conservation, Rural Resource Management, Environmental Studies, Equine Studies, Heritage Studies, Horticulture, Landscape Management, Garden Design, Animal Science, Poultry Science, Applied Bioscience, Agricultural Science, Food Science and Technology, and Rural Business Management.

SAC is one of the UK's leading research and development establishments and runs an international advisory and consultancy service. This all means that as a student at SAC you are taught by a team of staff including lecturers, researchers, advisers and consultants. They will provide up-to-the-minute information and insight into the commercial world beyond the College environment. We believe no other education institution can offer this combination of expertise and experience.

SAC's resources are substantial – all the study facilities you would expect from a land-based higher education institution; science and IT laboratories, libraries, engineering workshops, food technology facilities, glasshouse units and nurseries, farms, gardens and woodlands. These resources are unrivalled in the UK and provide real hands-on learning opportunities. In all its courses, SAC places a great emphasis on communication and personal skills, on new technology, and on legislative and other changes that impact on the world of work.

Supported by its successful research and development and international advisory and consultancy work, SAC provides a unique blend of academic and commercial environments, providing exceptional opportunities for innovative vocational studies. Knowledge transfer is at the heart of this – staff at SAC will pass on their experience and expertise to you, preparing you to succeed in the future.

SAC has a choice of three campuses, in Aberdeen, Ayr and Edinburgh. As well as lively student associations on each campus, students also join in with the social activities at neighbouring universities. Sports and leisure pursuits are plentiful around each campus with Ayr and Aberdeen campuses having sports facilities on site. Edinburgh students have membership of the university's sports centre. Each campus is well located for excellent nights out at clubs, bars and live music venues. For the outdoor enthusiast the surrounding countryside and coast offer hill walking, water sports and mountaineering.

Maria Curie-Sklodowska University in Lublin was founded on October 23rd 1944 as a state university. It was named after the great Polish scientist – Maria Curie-Sklodowska.

Almost 35 thousand students are currently enrolled on full time, extramural, and evening undergraduate, graduate and teacher training courses provided by ten faculties in 30 different study programs. The university employs approximately 1800 staff members. Postgraduate and doctoral study programs are increasingly popular. In order to meet the ever-growing educational needs, the university has recently established teacher training schools and licensed colleges outside Lublin.

The university offers exciting opportunities to enrich the student experience and education in the form of numerous scientific circles, interest groups operating under the patronage of the Academic Center of Culture and 26 sports sections of the Academic Sports Center. The Polish Language and Culture Center offers Polish language courses to foreign students. One of the recent initiatives has been the launch of the Polish Virtual University.

Warsaw University of Technology
www.pw.edu.pl

Here the 19th century tradition encounters the visions of the future information era. Here 30,000 students meet 2,000 professors to learn not only technological creativity but also universal human values. Their career choices vary from architecture to business and management, from mathematics and computer science to biotechnology and environmental engineering, from applied chemistry to geodesy and transport; but their life goals are common: to meet the challenges of the changing world.

Due to the huge investment and restructuring efforts accomplished during the last decade, Warsaw University of Technology is today able to offer not only a rich spectrum of standard ways to engineering careers, but also - for the most talented youth - individual paths of accelerated development enabling graduates to reach the most prominent positions in science, technology and management.

The Forestry Faculty and the Faculty of Wood Sciences of Technology of the Technical University in Zvolen is the foremost forestry educational institution in Slovakia. It joins on rich and very old tradition of forestry university studies, which dates back to the establishment of the Mining Academy in 1770. The main mission of the Faculty is to provide a university forestry education and develop scientific research and its application in forest management practice.

Since its creation in 1952, the University has prepared highly qualified specialists, created conditions for forestry and wood sciences and developed cooperation with forestry practice, woodworking industries and other national and international institutions of a similar orientation.

In 1991, the new independent Faculty of Ecology, presently the Faculty of Ecology and Environmental Sciences was formed.

The integration of Slovak universities into the European system and their transformation lead to the establishment of the Faculty of Environmental and Manufacturing Technology in 1996. The Faculty has overbridged the gap in preparation of university specialists for providing the ecologically friendly technologies and techniques in correspondence with world-wide trends as well as ecological standards of the EU.

Shane English School Chengdu

'We feel that City & Guilds International ESOL (IESOL) and International Spoken ESOL (ISESOL) qualifications provide an ideal solution to raising the standards of English language competency in China. The awards are unique in their flexibility and suit the needs of learners of all ages, background and ability.

As China is becoming one of the world's leading economies, there is a strong demand for speakers of English trained to international standards who are able to communicate effectively in real life and business situations.

City & Guilds IESOL and ISESOL qualifications are recognised around the world for their quality, flexibility and relevance to the modern workplace.'

www.shane.com.cn

Shane English School, Chengdu is one of ten schools operating in China as part of the Saxoncourt group.

Saxoncourt established operations in Mainland China in 2000 and, upon obtaining an operating license from the Board of Education, was able to open the first Shane English School in Shanghai in February 2001.

Wherever the schools are located, all follow the same philosophy, teaching methods, organisation and course structures.

Growing out of, and benefiting from, the existing structures and methodology of Shane English Schools, SES operations in China emulate the success, presence and high repute of our longer standing counterparts in Japan and elsewhere.
